

Baby Boomers

Intro: Em C G Em F C G

We were Hendrix and Joplin, Beatles and the Moody Blues

Tie-dyed and high, sur-prised that Elvis was too

We saw John F and Bobby and Martin die too soon

We took one big step when Armstrong danced on the moon

Baritone

Chorus: [SURVIVED]

We were baby boomers, we SUR-VIVED all those yester-days

Baby boomers, red, white and blue and grey

We watched Andy and Barney, some of us remember Gun-smoke

Before all those channels we were Dad's remote con-trol

Archie Bunker came along, made us think while he made us laugh

Late night TV's not the same since Carson passed

<Chorus>: [LIVED]

Some went to Canada, some of us just stayed home

Some got married, some had their numbers called

Some came back, some gave it all

Got their names etched on a black granite wall

<Chorus>: [RE-MEMBER]

Instrumental: Em C G Em F C G

Watergate, civil rights, Ali Frazier those were fights

Berlin Wall, burning bras, some were doves some were hawks

Boob tubes, birth control, Namath won the Super Bowl

<Chorus>: [LIVED]

We were Baby boomers, we're still here to-day

Baby boomers, red, white and blue and grey
