

Music & lyrics by Tom Stipe & Chuck Butler
Published 1972

Ballad of Lukewarm

Mar 5, 2023

Baritone

D G
You can find my name in the telephone listing

A D
My credit is better than fair

G
My daughter is running for sophomore princess

A D
I'm making my son cut his hair

D G
I never miss votin' or church every Sunday,

A D
I do what I can to sup-port

D G
The church and the state will be satisfied one day

A D
And then I can give to the poor

D G
My mother is happy, we found her a home

A D
With some folks of her status and age

G
She gave us the family bible last year

A↓ A↓ A↓ A↓
We'll keep in the attic 'til the pages turn yellow,

A D
'Cause antiques are quite the rage

Break:

D G A D D G
Dt dt da da dt dt da dt dt da da dt da, do ya doodliat Dt dt da da dt dt da
A A A A A D
doodliat, doodliat, doodliat, doodliat, doodliat da doot doot dow

D G
My mortgage is paid, and my Chevrolet

A D
I seldom ever beat my wife

D G
I can't understand why my name isn't there

A D↓ (hard stop!)
Listed in your book of life

