

Music & lyrics by Alfred Nobriga
Published 1995
Modified with thanks to
Mele 'Ohana

Hele on to Kauai

July 21, 2019

Intro: one person plays: A/// E7/

n.c            A                            D                            E7                            A
There's a place            I re-call            Not too big, in fact its kinda small
The people there,            know they got it all            The simple life for me

Baritone

Chorus:

A                            A7                            D
Hele on to Ka-uai,            Hanalei by the bay
E7                            D                            A
Wailua river valley            Where I used to play
A                            A7                            D
The canyons of Wai-mea standing all aglow
E7                            (1:) A/////            (2:) A///// G7/////
The magic of the garden isle is calling me back home            to ending

A                            D                            E7                            A
When I was young, not too smart            I left my home, looking for a brand new start
A                            D                            E7                            A
To find a place,            that's better still            Now I know, I know I never will

<Chorus>

Ending:

C                            C7                            F
Hele on to Ka-uai,            Hanalei by the bay
G7                            F                            C
Wailua river valley,            is where I used to play
C                            C7                            F
The canyons of Wai-mea standing all aglow
G7                            C
The magic of the garden isle is calling me back home
G7                            C// F// C// G7// C/
It's call-ing me back home. (ritard last line)

