Sing C

Only Sixteen

Intro: F B♭ C C
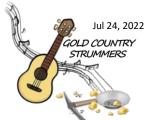

```
       F            B♭      C    B♭      C          F
She was only sixteen, only six-teen,     but I loved her so
F                   B♭    C      B♭        C          F
She was too young to fall in love,   and I was too young to know
```

```
       F                       B♭      C    B♭      C              F
We'd laugh and we'd sing, and do funny things,     and it made our hearts glow
F                   B♭    C      B♭        C          F
She was too young to fall in love,   and I was too young to know
```

Refrain:

```
   B♭        C        F                B♭        C        F
So why did I give my heart so fast?   It never will happen a-gain
   B♭        C    F          Dm    G   n.c.              C
But I was a mere child of six-teen.   I've aged a year since then
```

```
       F            B♭      C    B♭      C              F
She was only sixteen, only six-teen,     with eyes that would glow
F                   B♭    C      B♭        C          F
She was too young to fall in love,   and I was too young to know
```

Instrumental:

```
         F          B♭      C   B♭   C          F
She was only sixteen, only six-teen,     but I loved her so
F                   B♭    C      B♭        C          F
She was too young to fall in love,   and I was too young to know
```

<Refrain>

```
       F            B♭      C   B♭   C          F
She was only sixteen, only six-teen,     but I loved her so
F                   B♭    C      B♭        C          F
She was too young to fall in love,   and I was too young to know
```

Outro:

```
     F                B♭    C        B♭ (ritard)   C          F (sustain)
Yes, she was too young to fall in love,   and I  was  too    young  to  know
```
