From her mountains to her valleys

F7

Placer County is alive with histo - ry

В

For your grand-papa and mine blazed a trail in forty-nine

.7 F

And paid the price for the vic-to-ry

Bb7 E

Now we live, and work, and play in that spot close to heaven's door

C7 F7

God was good to point the way. Who could ask for anything more?

Βþ

Natures bounty fills our county

F7

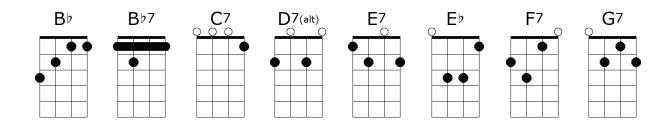

Ev'ry day of ev'ry month of ev'ry year

F7 Bb D7 G7 E7

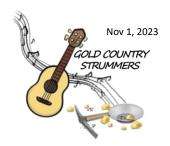

Our good fortune we would share. There is lots of room to spare. WHERE?

Placer County (pg 2)

Bb

There's a re - source in Placer County

For ev'ry man who wants to work and win his way

Countless farmers till the ground. Fruits of every kind abound

And there's a pot-t'ry to use our clay

In the gold mines of Placer County

Wealth untold unfolds from out the golden ore

While the little mining man with his sluice box and a pan

Is staked for grub as in days of yore

Then to find vacation thrills, winter sports as well as all the summer fun

We only need the hills, do you wonder our work's well done? to seek

That re-minds us you'll always find us

'Round the bend or at the end of Donner Trail

Bb

We re - peat the name and place in case you failed to hear us say. It's
